Part two 地点题

Park

what you do there （重复了？前面已经说了？）

As I have mentioned, the park is an ideal place for me to do some exercises, so I often jog there in the morning. Sometimes, when the weather is really nice, what I enjoy to do is just to sit beside the lake, watching the glittering and rippling water, thinking about nothing. Or in winters, going to the café and grabbing some warm beverage would also be a very nice choice.

有的时候第三问会问： what it is like/ looks like

As to what this park looks like... well, I would say it's not very big but has got everything I need. When I walk into it, the first thing comes into my sight is a quite big lake in the middle of the park. On the left hand side, there is small garden where people can enjoy some nice plants, especially some seasonal flowers. On the right wing of the park, you can find a café which is for people to enjoy some nice beverage, taking a rest.

Part two 地点题

and why you like visiting it.

Moving onto why I enjoy visiting the Yushan park so much...first of all, it's a free community park instead of a tourist attraction. That means, it's never packed with people and the environment there is perfect. Whenever I'm in the park, all I could hear would be the birds' twittering and chirping around me rather than the noise of the city, which makes me feel so calm and pleasant.

Part two 地点题

and why you like visiting it.

Also, what attracts me to visit the park is the fresh air. Taking a deep breath, I can take in the air mixed with the fragrance of flowers and meadow and that really boosts my energy. Staying in the parking makes me feel like escaping from the city into the arms of the nature, leaving all my problems behind. Basically, it's a wonderful place to spend some time alone and get relaxed.

what you would do there

There could be a bunch of things I would like to do there. During the day time, I want to walk around the place to enjoy the tropical plants or maybe visit some botanical gardens and forest park nearby. During the night time, what I really look forward is to visit the night market along the Meigong river.

Part two 地点题

城市美

五个感官: 看上去

and explain why you would like to go there.

Speaking of the reasons why I want to travel to Xishuangbana...well, first of all, it's the special architecture and marvelous natural views that attract me. Xishuangbanna is next to Thailand so it is influenced by the Thai culture. For that reason, there are plenty of delicate and unique Thai style buildings in that city. Besides, I want to visit the 'Elephant Valley' to see cute elephants.

Part two 地点题

and explain why you would like to go there.

Plus, what attract me to go there would be the tropical fruits and special cuisine. I could enjoy some nice tropical fruits which are way more delicious and sweeter than what we can have in the northern part of China. Lastly, I have to mention that the local people are famous for their slow-paced life and I do need a holiday to help me to escape from the busy and stressful urban life, enjoying a short break in the relaxing atmosphere.

Where it is

When you went there

There are several stadiums and arenas in my hometown. The most popular ones among young people is a sports field near Qingdao University. I first visited the place about one year ago when our school held their sport meeting there. Another time was last winter when I went there for ice skating when the field had turned the middle part into an ice rink. With the great background music and lighting, it was a kind of exciting and romantic experience for anyone who hasn't gone before.

Part two 地点题

Sample

What you did there

As to what I did there...well, I went there for taking part in the sports meeting so I run on the track. However, I spent most of my time sitting there to watch the game, enjoying to be a spectator.

Part two 地点题

And explain how you feel about this place

I would say the sports field is a very popular place, always filled with people because of its improvements in new lighting, renovated changing areas, and revitalized athletic facilities. No matter what kind of games you are into, you can play it on that field. Additionally, what also attracts people to go there would be the accessibility. There are two subway stations within walking distance and one parking lot right next to the field. So you don't need to worry about parking and if you are hungry, you can even find some food carts outside the place. It's just super convenient for people to hang out there and play some sports.
