Part one

Advertisement

What kinds of advertisements do you watch?

All kinds, I would say, no matter it's TV commercials, Internet pop-up ads, or posters on buses. Sometimes I feel there are too many advertisements around us. However, the only type of ad that I enjoy watching are videos taken by the Internet influencers on social media because they demonstrate the features of products in a very vivid way.

Have you ever bought something because of its advertisement?

Part one

Advertisement

Have you ever bought something because of its advertisement?

Yea for sure. Some of ads have got brain-washing jingles or slogans, like an ad for a kind of energy drink. That was the first thing popping into my head when I stood in front of the shelf in the supermarket. So I chose that drink. Also, cosmetics are something I usually buy because of their fancy and impressive images in the advertisements.

Do you watch advertisements from the beginning to the end?

Part one

Advertisement

Do you watch advertisements from the beginning to the end?

It really depends. Some of the advertisements have really unpredictable endings or very creative plots in them. Also, advertisements starred by singers or actors I admire would be enjoyable to watch. So for those ads, I would be willing to watch them from the beginning to the end. In contrast, some ads just repeat same slogan and lack originality and I usually just skip them straight away.

How often do you go to a cinema to watch a film?

Probably once a week, especially at weekends. I usually go there with my friends because we do enjoy the big screen and nice sound effects in cinemas.

Part one

movies

Do Chinese people like to go to a cinema to watch a film?

Yes, it's actually getting more popular now. When there are some blockbusters on, like the Avengers, you will see all the cinemas are fully booked... but I feel elder people still prefer to watch films at home... maybe they just don't like really crowded and noisy places.

Part one

movies

What kinds of films do you like best?

Definitely, it's comedies that attract me most. I like to be entertained when watching a film. I mean we can have lots of stress in our daily life, and comedies can help me to release the stress. Plus, some comedians are just excellent and they can keep me laughing for the whole movie.

Part one

movies

What was the first film that you watched?

As far as I can remember, it was Kungfu Panda. When I was about 8 years old, my father took me to watch it in the cinema. Honestly, I cannot remember the plots very well but what I do remember is how excited I was and the characters in the movie were extremely cute.

and explain why you think his/her ideas or opinions are interesting.

Moving onto why I believe his ideas are very interesting and creative...well, it must be his talents in teaching that make me feel so.

Rather than pushing students to memorize grammatical rules or vocabularies by rote, what Eric does is to design different activities, like playing different roles in a drama, writing scripts or charade, to get us fully involved in the class. I can always learn things in a very fun way.
